Material Witnesses, Alicia Rivas-Ramirez and Jose Santos Andrade-Alarcon, (hereafter “Material Witnesses”) by and through their counsel, Robert E. Schroth Jr., submit the following Memorandum of Points and Authorities in support of their motion to take the videotaped depositions.

I.

INTRODUCTION

On or about November 17, 2007, the Material Witnesses were detained by U.S. Border Patrol Agents in El Centro, California in connection with the arrest of the above captioned Defendants. The defendants have been charged with illegally bringing in undocumented aliens in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1324(a)(1)(A)(ii) and the Material Witnesses, who were with the defendants at the time of their arrest, have been detained as Material Witnesses under 8 U.S.C. § 1227 (d).

The Material Witnesses are currently being held at the ICJ detention facility in El Centro, California. On November 25, 2007, the attorney for the material witnesses was informed by the material witnesses that they knew of no one in this country that could post a bond for them to allow for their release from custody during the pendency of this case, and confirmed that the Material Witnesses were citizens of El Salvador and not eligible for an immigration bond. Their Attorney confirmed this with El Centro Border Patrol on November 27, 2007.

It is unnecessary to keep the Material Witnesses in the United States because their testimony can be preserved through the use of a videotaped deposition.¹ The Material Witnesses therefore request a court order that their testimony be preserved through the use of videotape depositions and, thereafter, that they be allowed to return to their families in El Salvador.

¹ While a witness may be detained for a reasonable period of time, the court must vigilantly guard an undocumented alien's "overriding liberty interest" and schedule a videotape deposition at the earliest possible time. See, Aguilar-Ayala v. Ruiz 973 F. 2d 411, 419 (5th Cir. 1992).

II.
THE TESTIMONY OF THE MATERIAL WITNESS CAN BE SECURED BY VIDEOTAPE DEPOSITION AND THERE IS NO COMPELLING REASON TO KEEP THEM IN CUSTODY

Title 18, section 3144 of the United States Code Provides:

No Material Witness may be detained . . . if the testimony of such witness can adequately be secured by deposition, and if further detention is not necessary to prevent a failure of justice.

The deposition of the Material Witness may be used at trial in criminal cases, so it is only in exceptional circumstances, where the interests of justice will be denied, that a videotape deposition is not appropriate. See, Torres-Ruiz v. United States 120 F.3d 933 (9th Cir. 1997) [citing Aguilar Ayala v. Ruiz 973 F.2d 411, 413 (5th Cir. 1992) see also 8 U.S.C. § 1324 (d), Federal Rules of Evidence 804, and Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 15. Defendants may be present at the videotape deposition and therefore have a full and fair opportunity to cross-examine the witnesses. The videotape provides sufficient indicia of reliability to afford the trier of fact a satisfactory basis for evaluating the truth of a statement. Dutton v. Evans, 400 U.S. 74, 89 (1970).

The government or defendant can effectuate the detention of the material witness upon a showing that (1) the material witness will, in all likelihood, be unavailable to testify for trial, and (2) that the use of deposition testimony will deny the defendant a fair trial and that live testimony would somehow be significantly different. See, Aguilar-Ayala v. Ruiz 973 F.2d at 413 (5th Cir. 1992), United States v. Humberto Rivera 859 F.2d 1204, 1208 (4th Cir. 1988). That would be a difficult burden in this case, however, because the Material Witnesses have

1 indicated that they are willing to return for trial if the government makes arrangements for their
 2 legal re-entry into the country and provides travel expenses.² (Schroth Decl. At para. 6).

3 The Material Witnesses should not be detained because their testimony can be 4 adequately secured by depositions. This is a very routine alien smuggling case. Based on 5 interviews with the Material Witnesses and the report submitted by the arresting agency, the 6 facts to which the Material Witnesses are competent to testify are straightforward. (Schroth
 7 Decl. At para. 5).

8 Moreover, neither the Material Witnesses nor their counsel, have been informed that the 9 witnesses' detention is necessary to prevent a failure of justice. (Schroth Decl. At para. 4).
 10 Quite to the contrary, the witnesses have already spent a considerable time in jail, nearly one
 11 month to the date of this motion is to be heard, and it is very important that they be released as 12 soon as possible so that they may be reunited with their families in El Salvador who depend on 13 them for their support. (Schroth Decl. At para. 2 and 4.). Jose Santos Andrade-Alarcon came to 14 the United States to earn money to send home to his parents who are in very poor health. It is 15 the policy of the U.S. Border Patrol, El Centro sector not to release any non-Mexican Material
 16 Witnesses on immigration bonds. Therefore even if the Material Witnesses were able to post a
 17 court bond, they would remain in custody (Schroth Decl. At para.3). Prior to filing this motion
 18 council contacted Defenses Attorney & requested that Defendant stipulate to the videotaped
 19 deposition council received no response.

27 ² The government would undoubtedly take reasonable steps in this case, as it has in other similar cases, to secure the witness's testimony at trial
 28 by personally subpoenaing the witness, providing travel costs, and arranging for legal re-entry of the alien. (See, United States v. Eufracio-Torris 890 F.2d 266, 270 (10th Cir. 1989) cert. Denied 494 U.S. 1008 (1990) [government need not guarantee the witness will be available, only that they use good-faith efforts to secure their presence at trial]; see also, Ohio v. Roberts, 448 U.S. 56, 65 (1980) [so long as the government uses reasonable measures to secure a witness at trial, a deposition is admissible over a defendant's Confrontation Clause and hearsay objections].

1 For these reasons, the Material Witnesses request that the court immediately order the
2 taking of their videotaped depositions and that they thereafter be immediately returned to El
3 Salvador.

6 IF THE COURT DENIES THE MATERIAL WITNESS' REQUEST TO TAKE THEIR
7 VIDEOTAPE DEPOSITION, THEY REQUEST THAT THE GOVERNMENT
8 PROVIDE THEM WITH A STATEMENT OF REASONS WHY THEY SHOULD HAVE
9 TO REMAIN IN CUSTODY

10 Where a witness has been held in custody for more than 10 days, the government has an 11 obligation to prepare a biweekly report stating the reasons why such a witness should not be 12 released with or without the taking of a deposition. Fed. Rules Crim. Proc., Rule 46 (g).

13 The Material Witnesses are not aware of any reasons why they should remain in 14 custody, but to the extent the government knows of any such reason, they hereby request that 15 the government provide them with a copy of a biweekly written report indicating these reasons.

17 IV.

18 CONCLUSION

19 For the forgoing reasons, the Material Witnesses respectfully request that this motion for 20 the taking of videotaped depositions be granted. In the alternative, the Witnesses request that 21 they immediately be provided with a statement of the reasons why they need to remain in 22 custody.
